

A PLACE IN THE KINGDOM

by Joyce Johnson Rouse

Everybody has a place in the kingdom, place in the kingdom
Kingdom of God,
Everyone with red skin, black skin, and white skin
Yellow skin and brown skin is loved by God

God loves me, God loves you
We're all precious in God's eyes
Everybody has a place in the kingdom, place in the kingdom
Kingdom of God

Every creature has a place in the kingdom, place in the kingdom
Kingdom of God
All the little spiders, camels and pipers
Dolphins and tigers are loved by God

God loves me, God loves you
We're all precious in God's eyes
Every creature has a place in the kingdom, place in the kingdom
Kingdom of God

Every bit of nature is part of the kingdom, part of the kingdom
Kingdom of God
Every giant oak tree, orchids and seaweed
Clean air and mountain streams are loved by God

God loves me, God loves you
We're all precious in God's eyes
Everybody has a place in the kingdom, place in the kingdom
Kingdom of God
Kingdom of God